PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON      JUNE 12, 1953

THE CASE AGAINST THE ROSENBERGS OUTRAGES LOGIC AND JUSTICE. IT DEPENDS ON THE TESTIMONY OF GREENGLASS AND HIS WIFE, BOTH CONFESSED SPIES AND ALLEGED ACCOMPLICES OF THE ROSENBERGS. GREENGLASS IS SUPPOSED TO HAVE REVEALED TO THE RUSSIANS THE 'SECRET' OF THE ATOMIC BOMB. THOUGH THE INFORMATION SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN TRANSMITTED COULD HAVE BEEN IMPORTANT, A MAN OF GREENGLASS' CAPACITY IS WHOLLY INCAPABLE OF TRANSMITTING THE PHYSICS, CHEMISTRY AND MATHEMATICS OF THE ATOMIC BOMB TO ANYONE. HE AND HIS WIFE WERE THE ONLY ONES WHO PRETENDED TO CONNECT THE ROSENBERGS WITH ATOMIC ESPIONAGE. NEW EVIDENCE MAKES EVEN MORE PLAIN WHAT WAS PLAIN ENOUGH BEFORE, THAT THE PROSECUTION'S CASE HAS NO LOGIC IN IT, AND THAT IT DEPENDS UPON THE BLOWING UP OF PATENTLY PERJURED TESTIMONY. I TRIED TO SEE THE ATTORNEY GENERAL THIS PAST WEEK BUT WAS UNABLE TO SECURE AN APPOINTMENT. ON BEHALF OF ALL THOSE INTERESTED IN THE DEFENSE, I ASK TO BE ALLOWED TO PRESENT MY UNDERSTANDING OF THE CASE TO YOU, MR. PRESIDENT.

Dear Friend:

It is late -- BUT NOT TOO LATE -- to save the lives of the Rosenbergs who are scheduled to die on June 18, the day of their fourteenth wedding anniversary. THEIR time is growing short, but you still have precious time to do something to save two lives.

All legal processes are not exhausted. New evidence keeps pouring in. Help them in the name of humanity and human conscience to present this evidence while they still live.

Pope Pius XII has asked mercy for these parents of two sons. Prof. Malcolm Sharp of the University of Chicago Law School declares the Pope's mercy plea "has reinforced the criticism made by many Americans of the severity of the sentence" and declares the new evidence now available "shakes the confidence" in the guilty verdict. Prof. Albert Einstein asks mercy and joins Dr. Harold Urey, Nobel Prize winner and foremost atomic authority, in casting doubt on some of the evidence that convicted the Rosenbergs. Twenty-three hundred Protestant Clergymen and countless Rabbis ask mercy and Americans from coast to coast have appealed to President Eisenhower for clemency.

"We Are Innocent"

SAY ETHEL AND JULIUS ROSENBERG

They are told, "Talk and you can live." But only days from death, they swear they are innocent. Against their word is the word of proven perjurers!

PERJURY! Newly-discovered documents — in the handwriting of chief prosecution witness David Greenglass — prove Greenglass lied when he swore in court that Julius Rosenberg sent spy Harry Gold to him. "I didn't know who sent Gold to me," Greenglass admits.

My husband is "an hysteric" who would "say things were so even if they were not," says Mrs. Ruth Greenglass of her husband, David, in an interview with her lawyer.

PERJURY! AN AFFIDAVIT from a staff member of R. H. Macy's department store proves Greenglass lied when he claimed the Rosenbergs got an expensive console table from the Russians. The affidavit proves the table was an inexpensive one bought at Macy's, as the Rosenbergs had testified.

AN AFFIDAVIT from FBI agent John Harrington reveals a major witness lied on the stand in identifying the Rosenbergs.

PERJURY! Witness Max Elitcher faced a perjury indictment for swearing falsely to the government and admitted he hoped to make things easier for himself by his testimony against the Rosenbergs.

Even as you read this, new evidence of perjury is being uncovered.

Don't let them die on perjured testimony. See that the FULL facts come to light NOW ... NOT AFTER THEY ARE ELECTROCUTED!

PARENTS TO DIE ON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY ROSENBERG CHILDREN PLEAD WITH PRESIDENT

Dear President Eisenhower,
I saw on television on Monday
Mr. Oatis is not in prison anymore
because the President of the country
let him go. He said he will write a letter to the President over there and she told why Mr. Oatis should be let go. I think it is a good thing to let him go home because I think prison is a very bad place for anybody to be.
My mommy and daddy are in prison in New York. My brother is six years old his name is Robby. He misses them very much and I miss them too. I got the idea to write you from Mr. Oatis on television.
Please let my mommy and daddy go and not let any thing happen to them. If they come home Robby and I will be very happy we will thank you very much.
Very truly yours

Statement on the Execution of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg

Two lives have been taken, a mother and father.

Our nation's security is not greater for it; it is less because we have given up that charity of spirit and greatness of heart without which no nation is strong.

Our nation's conscience is not more serene; it lies in shadow because we permitted the hue and cry of passion to drown out the inner voice of mercy.

Our nation's light does not shine brighter; it is dimmer because we turned our backs on the counsel of all the great religious and lay leaders of our time.

Our nation must pray tonight that remorse gives courage to those who know the truth, so that they will not keep silence, so that even though the Rosenbergs have been put to death, their children may someday reap the reward of vindication.

STATEMENT ISSUED BY
NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE IN ROSENBERG CASE

WASHINGTON OFFICE
1867 Kalorama Road
Columbia 5-0302

The opinions of Justices Douglas, Black and Frankfurter emphasize once more the uncertainties and doubts which have plagued the Rosenberg case from the first. The division of opinion itself, where human life is at stake, is an eloquent argument for commutation of the death sentence.

The execution of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg would be a tragedy greater than that affecting the lives of two human beings and their families. The tragedy would be our nation's, for we would be rejecting the impassioned and sincere pleas of our closest friend and allies.

We must pause to ask whether the spiritual leaders of the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish religions and the political leaders of France, Great Britain and Italy are all wrong in pleading for clemency, and that our country in which millions have also asked for clemency, is utterly and infallibly right in putting the Rosenbergs to death.

No explanation can be given to the world and our own conscience for this first espionage death sentence, for the contrast with the sentences given to Axis Sally, Tokyo Rose, David Provoo, many leading Nazi war criminals who are accused not of giving information to an ally, but of aiding an enemy in time of war.

The electric chair cannot answer these questions.

We believe that President Eisenhower conscious of the great strength of our nation and of our exemplary heritage of justice and mercy, should commute the death sentences of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

The Committee has sent a telegram to the President requesting an appointment for our officers today. The telegram was signed by Mr. Joseph Brainin, National Chairman.

TEXT OF TELEGRAM TO PRESIDENT EISENHOWER

President Eisenhower
White House

For two years we of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case, among whom number many friends and neighbors of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, have labored to save their lives.

We were moved to this by no partisan interest or personal gain, except that benefit which we believe would be shared by all our fellow citizens by an act of mercy and fairness.

We are greatly heartened and encouraged, when upon taking the unprecedented step of publishing the entire court record, we received the support of countless attorneys and jurists who commended the sense of objectivity which led to that document publication and circulation.

There is no town or city in our country, Mr. President, from which we have not received more human compassionate aid in this undertaking.

In any religious persuasion, in every profession and trade we have found an echo of our humble efforts for clemency.

We have learned something of our country in these two years, Mr. President. It is peopled by men and women who, in their love of our country and its traditions, are ever ready to give their neighborly support to a just cause.

Mr. President, we plead with you to give us a little of your time, so that we may tell you of the deep feeling for clemency that we have found in the hearts of our fellow Americans.

Joseph Brainin, Chairman
David Alman, Secretary
National Committee to Secure
Justice in the Rosenberg Case.

Dear Friend:

We are sure that you have been concerned as we are with the tragic developments of the recent days in the execution of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg. And you too must be asking yourself, "What next?"

In this light, we believe you will be interested in the thinking of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case, which has just announced that it will work to obtain a new trial for Morton Sobell, who was sentenced to thirty years at Alcatraz as a co-defendant with Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

The following is the Committee's statement of plans:

"The execution of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg was carried out in the same atmosphere of extreme passion, disregard for due process and abandonment of humane considerations that marked their trial and sentencing.

"Justice Felix Frankfurter confirms this tragic state of affairs in these words: 'Painful as it is, I am bound to say that circumstances precluded what to me are indispensable conditions for solid judicial judgment.'

"Justice Frankfurter's opinion, coming several days after the execution, bears out the fact that the Rosenberg case is not closed.

"We believe that it would be in the best interests of our country and its judicial process to continue all efforts to ascertain the truth in the Rosenberg Case; that the trial and sentencing of the Rosenbergs' co-defendant, Morton Sobell, requires steps leading towards a new trial; that efforts be made to secure public support for a transfer of Morton Sobell from imprisonment at Alcatraz where he will not be permitted to see his children for many years; that the two small sons of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg require adequate and responsible care in an atmosphere of warmth and devotion, shielded in their childhood from the aftermath of the tragedy which tore their parents from them.

"To these ends, the committee calls upon the many diverse groups and individuals throughout the country who concerned themselves with either a new trial or clemency for the Rosenbergs to dedicate themselves anew to justice in the Rosenberg-Sobell Case; to prepare factual material on Morton Sobell's trial, sentence and imprisonment; and to contribute adequately to whatever centralized agency there arises to care for the Rosenberg children.

"Our committee reiterates the position it took two years ago. We have grave doubts in the Rosenberg-Sobell Case. These doubts did not die in the electric chair. In truth, the circumstances under which the Rosenbergs were so hurriedly executed tend to confirm the doubts which are now world-wide.

"Finally, we wish to address ourselves to the many thousands who have in the past few days, poured out their grief to us: We share your grief. With you, we are prepared to abjure all motives of partisanship or vengeance. What we seek is justice !"

Dear Friend:

The future of Michael and Robbie Rosenberg weighs heavily on our hearts and minds these days. We feel that every possible effort should be made to guarantee the Rosenberg children a carefree, healthy childhood and an adequate education to prepare them for a useful, full life. Equally important is that the Rosenberg children grow up feeling that their parents have been full vindicated and that the name they bear is an honored one throughout the world.

Mr. Emanuel H. Bloch was appointed, by Ethel and Julius, Trustee of the funds for the Rosenberg children. He has assured us that he is in the process of setting up such a Trust Fund as the authorized agency to receive and disburse the funds in accordance with the wishes expressed by Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

We are, therefore, urging all our friends to address their donations for the Trust Fund to Mr. Bloch, Trustee, 401 Broadway, N.Y. 13, N.Y.

It goes without saying that we, who have labored incessantly to save the Rosenbergs and reunite them with their children, are vitally interested in and tremendously concerned with building up a Trust Fund for the Rosenberg children, a fund which would guarantee the future of Michael and Robbie.

The responsibility for the establishment of the Rosenberg Trust Fund rests solely with Mr. Bloch. It is his legal as well as personal duty. However, our committee has undertaken a very important task, a task which should add substantially to the resources of the Trust Fund. We refer to the sale of the Death House Letters. As you know, the entire profits of the sale of this book are assigned by our committee to the Trust Fund.

The distribution of the book of letters is our obligation. With your wholehearted cooperation, it can serve a double purpose:

1. It should produce substantial monies for the Rosenberg Trust Fund.
2. It will contribute much toward the dissemination of the truth about the innocence of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

Thus a large distribution of the letters will serve as a powerful factor in the vindication of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

However, even the widest possible distribution of the letters cannot by itself achieve this end.

The Rosenbergs can win vindication only if we succeed in securing justice for Morton Sobell, co-defendant in the Rosenberg case, who has been sentenced to a living death for 30 years in Alcatraz, America's penitentiary for hardened criminals.

By undertaking the responsibility to secure justice for Morton Sobell, we reopen the entire Rosenberg Case. This is the primary task that confronts the forces who fought for the lives of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg. The sacred obligation we must assume if we intend to make certain that a Rosenberg-Sobell frame-up does not happen again.

We urge you to work fully with your local committee to prosecute the work in every respect. Particularly, we urge your full support in the great Dedication Rally at Triboro Stadium, Randall's Island, N.Y. on the evening of August 19th, 1953 or to your local Dedication Rally.

We appeal to you to help us achieve victory,

Joseph Brainin, Chairman

Dear Neighbor:

The Rosenberg case is not closed!

In Alcatraz at this moment sits Morton Sobell, given a thirty year sentence on much the same flimsy evidence that sent Julius and Ethel Rosenberg to the chair.

In New Jersey are two children, Michael and Robbie Rosenberg, still firm in the belief of their parents' innocence.

In Washington, the Supreme Court let it be known that they did not review the case -- had not even examined the evidence and had not considered the propriety of the death sentence.

And in the rest of the world, millions of people are continuing to ask angry questions which we, as Americans must answer -- the questions of perjured testimony, new evidence, and the constant refusals by every court to review the case. These things which haunted the Rosenberg case also exist in the case of Morton Sobell.

This case deserves a full and fair court review. The ever-present doubts which have plagued so many people who have become acquainted with the facts, must be set to rest.

Furthermore, there is also the immediate problem of the Rosenberg children. Julius and Ethel Rosenberg's constant concern of the future welfare of their children prompted them to agree to the publication and sale of their private letters written to each other while they were in jail. And so, "Death House Letters" has just come off the press. It is a richly human and deeply moving document.

All money made from this book goes into a fund for the Rosenberg children. We, a group of your neighbors, feel a responsibility towards these recent orphans and are therefore offering copies for sale. The price is one dollar. By mailing the attached order blank with your money, you can be assured of prompt delivery. Somehow, this seems like one of the few things we can do to help these youngsters.

A Group of Your Neighbors.

Three U.S. Supreme Court
Justices Reveal the Rosenbergs
Did Not Have Their Day in Court

Americans who picked up their newspapers on Thursday morning, June 18th, learned that it might not be legal to execute Ethel and Julius Rosenberg. Supreme Court Justice William Douglas had stated his grave doubts and granted a stay so the courts would be enabled to study the case. Newspaper reports indicated the possibility that the entire case might be thrown out of court. The New York Times, for instance, featured the headline "CASE SEEN IN PERIL."

The next day the Rosenbergs died in the electric chair. American justice is still reeling from the haste with which the Rosenbergs were rushed to their deaths. The world is appalled that a mother and father were electrocuted while grave legal doubts still remained.

And there is no mistake about that. Grave doubts do exist. Justices Hugo Black, William Douglas and Felix Frankfurter are agreed that Ethel and Julius Rosenberg may have gone to their deaths illegally. All three have said that more time was needed by the courts.

The misconception has been foisted on the public that the Rosenbergs received the full measure of justice and had their day in court. President Eisenhower, in denying clemency, said that "when in their most solemn judgment the tribunals of the United States have adjudged them guilty and the sentence just, I will not intervene in the matter."

But President Eisenhower has confused a repeated denial of justice with a prolonged consideration of the case.

It is an incontrovertible fact that the Supreme Court, the highest court of the land, never passed on the fairness of the trial and the justness of the death sentence. It never reviewed the case, and consequently it never read the trial transcript.

DEATH DECREED REGARDLESS OF INNOCENCE OR GUILT

Ethel and Julius Rosenberg swore that they were completely innocent. Against their word was the word of David Greenglass, who claimed that the Rosenbergs induced him to steal the "secret" of the atomic bomb. Judge Jerome N. Frank of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals said that without the Greenglass testimony there would be no case against the Rosenbergs.

One week before the execution Dr. Harold C. Urey, the nation's foremost atomic scientist, a man who helped develop the atomic bomb, told President Eisenhower that Greenglass could not possibly have stolen the secret. He said in a telegram that "a man of Greenglass' capacity is wholly incapable of transmitting the physics, chemistry and mathematics of the atomic bomb to any one." Dr. Urey asserted that the prosecution's case "depends upon the blowing up of patently perjured testimony." He asked President Eisenhower for an appointment to present his understanding of the case personally.

But Dr. Urey never received an answer to his telegram. Nor was he able to get an appointment with Attorney General Herbert Brownell, who refused to see any one connected with the legal defense or clemency appeals.

This unwillingness to discuss the Rosenberg case with Dr. Urey was characteristic of the role the Justice Department had played for the past two years. Every attempt on the part of the defense to present new evidence was opposed. Every effort at postponing the execution to allow presentation of new facts was blocked.

The Attorney General's office was determined not to entertain any delay in the execution. It wanted an execution, not the truth. June 18th, the Rosenbergs' fourteenth wedding anniversary, was set for the double execution.

JUSTICE DOUGLAS GRANTS A STAY

Throughout America and throughout the world there were appeals that the Rosenbergs be spared. As the execution date neared the pleas mounted. Vincent Auriol, the President of France, urged clemency.

JUSTICE DOUGLAS

Douglas Dillon, U. S. Ambassador to France, reported that the Embassy in Paris had been besieged with clemency pleas and warned that the execution would hurt U. S. prestige abroad. In England a delegation of members of Parliament urged Prime Minister Churchill to intervene with President Eisenhower. The Vatican radio, elaborating on previous pleas for mercy made by Pope Pius XII, broadcast recommendations of clemency. "Save the Rosenbergs", had become a world wide cry.

In Washington, 13,000 men, women and children from all parts of the United States gathered before the White House on Sunday, June 14 to call upon President Eisenhower to grant clemency. The gathering, which police said was the largest they had ever seen at the White House, represented Americans of all political and religious beliefs who had been moved by the plight of the Rosenbergs. Clemency had been requested by renowned scientists, religious leaders, labor leaders, leaders of the Negro people, professors, and legal authorities.

On Tuesday, June 18, the Rosenberg defense asked Justice Douglas for a stay of execution. It is within the power of a single Supreme Court Justice to grant such a stay. Mr. Justice Douglas was presented with an argument that had not previously been considered by the High Court. It was argued that the Rosenbergs should have been tried under the Atomic Energy Act of 1946, not the Espionage Act of 1917. Under the Espionage Act the judge can impose the death penalty at his own discretion. Under the Atomic Energy Act a jury recommendation is needed for the death sentence. There was no such jury recommendation in the Rosenberg case, only the decision of Judge Irving Kaufman.

For twelve hours Justice Douglas deliberated, carefully weighing the law. The following day, on Wednesday, June 17th, he announced that he was granting a stay. Justice Douglas said that the point raised in behalf of the Rosenbergs was a substantial one that needed more time for study by the lower courts. He said:

"It is important that the country be protected against the nefarious plans of spies who would destroy us. It is also important that before we allow human lives to be snuffed out we be sure—emphatically sure—that we act within the law. If we are not sure, there will be lingering doubts to plague the conscience after the event."

Humanity breathed easier. The Rosenbergs had been granted a legal reprieve, at least until the fall of 1953.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IS ASTOUNDED

Newsmen reported that Attorney General Brownell, America's administrator of justice, was astounded by the action of Justice Douglas. He seemed to feel that the execution was slipping away, since the normal procedure now required that the case be held over until the fall, the courts having adjourned for the summer.

But these were not days of normal procedure. Attorney General Brownell insisted that Chief Justice Vinson reconvene the Supreme Court immediately in special session, to reverse Justice Douglas so the execution could go on as scheduled.

Commented Justice Black in his opinion:

"Surely the Court is not here establishing a precedent which will require it to call extra sessions during vacation every time a federal or state official asks it to hasten the electrocution of defendants without affording this Court adequate time or opportunity for exploration and study of serious legal questions."

Chief Justice Vinson promptly recalled the Justices from their vacations for a new term on Thursday, June 18th. Meanwhile, there were attempts on the part of those who wanted to rush the Rosenbergs to their death to create a mob atmosphere to pressure the court. Representative Wheeler of Georgia introduced in Congress a move to impeach Justice Douglas. Newspaper editorials charged Mr. Douglas with obstructing justice. An attempt obviously was being made to create the false impression that Justice Douglas had acted illegally and had usurped the authority of the entire Court.

The Supreme Court itself, however, contradicted this impression when it made clear, on June 19th, that

"The Acting Solicitor General agrees and we do not doubt that Mr. Justice Douglas had power to issue the stay in these proceedings."

What was doubtful was whether the entire Court had the power to set aside the stay granted by Justice Douglas.

Justice Black wrote, on June 19th:

"The Government argues that this Court has power to set aside the stay granted by Mr. Justice Douglas. I think this is doubtful. I have found no statute or rule of court which permits the full Court to set aside a mere temporary stay entered by a Justice in obedience to his statutory obligations."

Representative Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania, a member of the House Judiciary subcommittee, also said that the Supreme Court did not have the authority to reverse Justice Douglas.

"There is absolutely nothing in the act of 1925 (under which Justice Douglas granted the stay)," Walter said on June 19, "that gives the Supreme Court authority to review the action of one of the Justices acting under the statutes."

Walter explained that the action of a single justice must send the whole case back to the lower courts. To return to the full Supreme Court, it must be processed through District and Appeals Courts.

THE EXECUTIONER STANDS BY

Observers could not recall another instance in American history when the United States Supreme Court was meeting while an executioner stood by waiting to go into action as soon as the Court would render its decision. What made the Department of Justice so certain that the decision would be death? Yet on Thursday, June 18th, officials at Sing Sing were going ahead with their preparations to put the Rosenbergs to death that very night—while the Supreme Court was still sitting in extraordinary session. Until late that afternoon the Rosenbergs themselves were subjected to the unparalleled torture of not knowing whether they would live or die that night. Finally the Court announced that it would make its decision known the following day—Friday, June 19th.

After noon on Friday, June 19th, the Court announced that it was vacating the stay granted by Justice Douglas. Justice Douglas, Black and Frankfurter dissented.

The execution followed so rapidly that Justice Frankfurter did not have time to make his dissent public until after Ethel and Julius Rosenberg were dead.

The following Monday Justice Frankfurter wrote:

"To be writing an opinion in a case affecting two lives after the curtain has been rung down upon them has the appearance of pathetic futility. But history also has its claims."

THE MISSING DAY IN COURT

Those who say the Rosenbergs had their day in court are repeating a myth. But, one may ask, didn't the Supreme Court consider the case

so many times? The answer is, as Justice Frankfurter has stated, that refusal by the Supreme Court to review a case in no way implies approval of the decision by the lower courts. The Supreme Court never passed on the fairness of the trial or the justness of the sentence.

Even the majority opinion of the Supreme Court's rejection of the Rosenbergs' final plea, written by Mr. Justice Jackson and concurred in by Justices Vinson, Reed, Burton, Clark and Minton, said:

"Vacating this stay is not to be construed as indorsing the wisdom or appropriateness to this case of a death sentence."

Justice Black wrote in his dissent:

"It is not amiss to point out that this Court has never reviewed this record and has never affirmed the fairness of the trial below. Without an affirmance of the fairness of the trial by the highest court in the land there may always be questions as to whether these executions were legally and rightfully carried out. I would still grant certiorari and let this Court approve or disapprove the fairness of the trials."

All three dissenting Justices criticized the irregular and injudicious haste of the executions.

To quote Justice Black:

"I do not believe that Government counsel or this Court has had time or an adequate opportunity to investigate and decide the very serious question raised in asking this Court to vacate the stay granted by Mr. Justice Douglas. . . . I add my regret that the rush of this case has deprived me of any opportunity to do more at this time than hastily sketch my view on the important questions raised. . . .

"Judicial haste is peculiarly out of place where the death penalty has been imposed for conduct part of which took place at a time when Congress appears to have barred the imposition of that death penalty by district judges acting without a jury's recommendation. And it seems to me that this court has not had time or opportunity for sufficient study to give the kind of informed decision on this important question it would if the case should take its regular course."

Justice Frankfurter wrote:

"Neither counsel nor the Court, in the time available, were able to go below the surface of the question raised by the application for a stay which Mr. Justice Douglas granted. More time was needed than was had for adequate consideration. . . .

"The crux of all I am suggesting is that none of the obvious considerations for bringing the all too leaden-footed proceedings in this case to an end should have barred the full employment of the deliberative process necessary for reaching a firm conclusion on the issue on which the Court has now spoken, however unfortunate it may be that the issue did not emerge earlier than it did."

THE DOUBTS MOUNT

The doubts in the Rosenberg case did not die in the electric chair. They are now intensified as a result of the dissenting opinions of Justices Black, Douglas and Frankfurter, who question the legality of the death sentence. Was the execution within the law?

Justice Black declared:

"It is my view, based on the limited arguments we have heard, that after passage of the Atomic Energy Act of 1946 it was unlawful for a judge to impose the death penalty for unlawful transmittal of atomic secrets unless such a penalty was recommended by the jury trying the case."

Justice Douglas said:

"The cold truth is that the death sentence may not be imposed for what the Rosenbergs did unless the jury so recommends. . . . I know deep in my heart that I am right on the law. Knowing that my duty is clear."

Justice Frankfurter wrote:

"It thus appears—although, of course, I would feel more secure in my conviction had I had the opportunity to make a thorough study of the lengthy record in this case—that the conspiracy with which the Rosenbergs were charged is one falling in part within the terms of the Atomic Energy Act, passed by Congress in 1946 and specifically dealing with classified information pertaining to the recent developments in atomic energy. There remains the question whether the sentence for such a conspiracy could be imposed under the Espionage Act."

What if the Rosenbergs had been tried under the Atomic Energy Act? The prosecution attorney told the Supreme Court that the government would have been laughed out of court if the indictment had been brought under the Atomic Energy Act. Justice Douglas agreed. So, with the Rosenbergs already executed, we have an admission that they would not have been convicted if tried under the law that three Supreme Court Justices believe applied to the case.

All of these opinions do not take into account the mounting evidence that the Rosenbergs were convicted on perjured testimony. What about the documents proving that David Greenglass lied, that the Rosenbergs bought the controversial console table at a department store and did not get it from the Russians as the prosecution had charged, that Greenglass was incapable of stealing atomic secrets?

NEW TRIAL FOR SOBELL

History may recognize the injustice done to them, but there can be no compensation for the Rosenbergs. No future apology will bring their parents to little Michael and Robbie, nor will it wipe out the crushing blow to American traditions of justice and mercy.

However, there is still time to halt a miscarriage of justice in the case of Morton Sobell, who was a co-defendant with Ethel and Julius Rosenberg. Sobell, convicted on the word of a man who faced a perjury indictment, was sentenced to thirty years at Alcatraz. He swears he is completely innocent.

Alcatraz is a place reserved for murderers and hardened criminals. No children are allowed to visit there. This means that Sobell cannot see his four-year-old son Mark or his daughter Sydney, who is 13.

The many and grave doubts surrounding the entire Rosenberg case call for a new trial for Morton Sobell. He must get the day in court, the full measure of justice that the Rosenbergs never had. Meanwhile he should be removed from the inhumane conditions at Alcatraz to another prison where he can see his children while waiting for all of the facts in his case to come to light.

The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case urges justice for Morton Sobell. A new trial would be a step toward guaranteeing that the injustice suffered by the Rosenbergs will never again stain the conscience of America.

Atom Expert Declares There Was No A-Secret; Rosenbergs Couldn't Have Given Russia A-Bomb

THE CRIME THAT DIDN'T EXIST

Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, former executive director of the Atomic Energy Commission's Research and Development Board, asserted on a CBS TV program on Aug. 23 that there was no such thing as an atomic secret.

Building the A-bomb, Lapp said, depends on production methods, not "blueprints or secrets." He said you couldn't give the Russians the secret of the

A-bomb any more than you could give them the secret of making automobiles.

Dr. Lapp branded as "fiction" the idea that "the theft of atomic secrets from United States by Dr. Fuchs, Allen Nun-May and the Rosenbergs, the Green-glases, has actually given the A-bomb to the Soviets.

EXECUTED ON A "FICTION"

Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, who swore their innocence, were electrocuted on the basis of the "fiction" exposed by Dr. Lapp. Judge Kaufman echoed the "fiction" when in passing sentence he said: "I believe your conduct in putting into the hands of the Russians the A-bomb years before our best scientists predicted Russia would perfect the bomb has already caused in my opinion the Communist aggression in Korea with the resulting casualties exceeding 50,000 and who knows but what millions more of innocent people may pay the price of your treason..."

President Eisenhower repeated the "fiction" when he denied clemency, saying that "by measurably increasing the chances of atomic war, the Rosenbergs may have condemned to death tens of millions of innocent people all over the world."

"This Court has never reviewed this record and has never affirmed the fairness of the trial."

Did the Rosenbergs Have Full Measure of Justice?

Three U. S. Supreme Court
Justices Reveal the Rosenbergs
Did Not Have Their Day in Court

Americans who picked up their newspapers on Thursday morning, June 18th, learned that it might not be legal to execute Ethel and Julius Rosenberg. Supreme Court Justice William Douglas had stated his grave doubts and granted a stay so the courts would be enabled to study the case. Newspaper reports indicated the possibility that the entire case might be thrown out of court. The New York Times, for instance, featured the headline "CASE SEEN IN PERIL."

The next day the Rosenbergs died in the electric chair.

American justice is still reeling from the haste with which the Rosenbergs were rushed to their deaths. The world is appalled that a mother and father were electrocuted while grave legal doubts still remained.

And there is no mistake about that. Grave doubts do exist. Justices Hugo Black, William Douglas and Felix Frankfurter are agreed that Ethel and Julius Rosenberg may have gone to their deaths illegally. All three have said that more time was needed by the courts.

The misconception has been foisted on the public that the Rosenbergs received the full measure of justice and had their day in court. President Eisenhower, in denying clemency, said that "when in their most solemn judgment the tribunals of the United States have adjudged them guilty and the sentence just, I will not intervene in the matter."

But President Eisenhower has confused a repeated denial of justice with a prolonged consideration of the case.

It is an incontrovertible fact that the Supreme Court, the highest court of the land, never passed on the fairness of the trial and the justness of the death sentence. It never reviewed the case, and consequently it never read the trial transcript.

DEATH DECREED REGARDLESS OF INNOCENCE OR GUILT

Ethel and Julius Rosenberg swore that they were completely innocent. Against their word was the word of David Greenglass, who claimed that the Rosenbergs induced him to steal the "secret" of the atomic bomb. Judge Jerome N. Frank of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals said that without the Greenglass testimony there would be no case against the Rosenbergs.

One week before the execution Dr. Harold C. Urey, the nation's foremost atomic scientist, a man who helped develop the atomic bomb, told President Eisenhower that Greenglass could not possibly have stolen the secret. He said in a telegram that "a man of Greenglass' capacity is wholly incapable of transmitting the physics, chemistry and mathematics of the atomic bomb to any one." Dr. Urey asserted that the prosecution's case "depends upon the blowing up of patently perjured testimony." He asked President Eisenhower for an appointment to present his understanding of the case personally.

But Dr. Urey never received an answer to his telegram. Nor was he able to get an appointment with Attorney General Herbert Brownell, who refused to see any one connected with the legal defense or clemency appeals.

This unwillingness to discuss the Rosenberg case with Dr. Urey was characteristic of the role the Justice Department had played for the past two years. Every attempt on the part of the defense to present new evidence was opposed. Every effort at postponing the execution to allow presentation of new facts was blocked.

The Attorney General's office was determined not to entertain any delay in the execution. It wanted an execution, not the truth. June 18th, the Rosenbergs' fourteenth wedding anniversary, was set for the double execution.

JUSTICE DOUGLAS GRANTS A STAY

Throughout America and throughout the world there were appeals that the Rosenbergs be spared. As the execution date neared the pleas mounted. Vincent Auriol, the President of France, urged clemency.

JUSTICE DOUGLAS

Douglas Dillon, U. S. Ambassador to France, reported that the Embassy in Paris had been besieged with clemency pleas and warned that the execution would hurt U. S. prestige abroad. In England a delegation of members of Parliament urged Prime Minister Churchill to intervene with President Eisenhower. The Vatican radio, elaborating on previous pleas for mercy made by Pope Pius XII, broadcast recommendations of clemency. "Save the Rosenbergs" had become a world wide cry.

In Washington, 13,000 men, women and children from all parts of the United States gathered before the White House on Sunday, June 14 to call upon President Eisenhower to grant clemency. The gathering, which police said was the largest they had ever seen at the White House, represented Americans of all political and religious beliefs who had been moved by the plight of the Rosenbergs. Clemency had been requested by renowned scientists, religious leaders, labor leaders, leaders of the Negro people, professors, and legal authorities.

On Tuesday, June 16, the Rosenberg defense asked Justice Douglas for a stay of execution. It is within the power of a single Supreme Court Justice to grant such a stay. Mr. Justice Douglas was presented with an argument that had not previously been considered by the High Court. It was argued that the Rosenbergs should have been tried under the Atomic Energy Act of 1946, not the Espionage Act of 1917. Under the Espionage Act the judge can impose the death penalty at his own discretion. Under the Atomic Energy Act a jury recommendation is needed for the death sentence. There was no such jury recommendation in the Rosenberg case, only the decision of Judge Irving Kaufman.

For twelve hours Justice Douglas deliberated, carefully weighing the law. The following day, on Wednesday, June 17th, he announced that he was granting a stay. Justice Douglas said that the point raised in behalf of the Rosenbergs was a substantial one that needed more time for study by the lower courts. He said:

"It is important that the country be protected against the nefarious plans of spies who would destroy us. It is also important that before we allow human lives to be snuffed out we be sure—emphatically sure—that we act within the law. If we are not sure, there will be lingering doubts to plague the conscience after the event."

Humanity breathed easier. The Rosenbergs had been granted a legal reprieve, at least until the fall of 1953.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IS ASTOUNDED

Newsmen reported that Attorney General Brownell, America's administrator of justice, was astounded by the action of Justice Douglas. He seemed to feel that the execution was slipping away, since the normal procedure now required that the case be held over until the fall, the courts having adjourned for the summer.

But these were not days of normal procedure. Attorney General Brownell insisted that Chief Justice Vinson reconvene the Supreme Court immediately in special session, to reverse Justice Douglas so the execution could go on as scheduled.

Commented Justice Black in his opinion:

"Surely the Court is not here establishing a precedent which will require it to call extra sessions during vacation every time a federal or state official asks it to hasten the electrocution of defendants without affording this Court adequate time or opportunity for exploration and study of serious legal questions."

Chief Justice Vinson promptly recalled the Justices from their vacations for a new term on Thursday, June 18th. Meanwhile, there were attempts on the part of those who wanted to rush the Rosenbergs to their death to create a mob atmosphere to pressure the court. Representative Wheeler of Georgia introduced in Congress a move to impeach Justice Douglas. Newspaper editorials charged Mr. Douglas with obstructing justice. An attempt obviously was being made to create the false impression that Justice Douglas had acted illegally and had usurped the authority of the entire Court.

The Supreme Court itself, however, contradicted this impression when it made clear, on June 19th, that

"The Acting Solicitor General agrees and we do not doubt that Mr. Justice Douglas had power to issue the stay in these proceedings."

What was doubtful was whether the entire Court had the power to set aside the stay granted by Justice Douglas.

Justice Black wrote, on June 19th:

"The Government argues that this Court has power to set aside the stay granted by Mr. Justice Douglas. I think this is doubtful. I have found no statute or rule of court which permits the full Court to set aside a mere temporary stay entered by a Justice in obedience to his statutory obligations."

Representative Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania, a member of the House Judiciary subcommittee, also said that the Supreme Court did not have the authority to reverse Justice Douglas.

"There is absolutely nothing in the act of 1923 (under which Justice Douglas granted the stay)," Walter said on June 19, "that gives the Supreme Court authority to review the action of one of the Justices acting under the statutes."

Walter explained that the action of a single justice must send the whole case back to the lower courts. To return to the full Supreme Court, it must be processed through District and Appeals Courts.

THE EXECUTIONER STANDS BY

Observers could not recall another instance in American history when the United States Supreme Court was meeting while an executioner stood by waiting to go into action as soon as the Court would render its decision. What made the Department of Justice so certain that the decision would be death? Yet on Thursday, June 18th, officials at Sing Sing were going ahead with their preparations to put the Rosenbergs to death that very night—while the Supreme Court was still sitting in extraordinary session. Until late that afternoon the Rosenbergs themselves were subjected to the unparalleled torture of not knowing whether they would live or die that night. Finally the Court announced that it would make its decision known the following day—Friday, June 19th.

After noon on Friday, June 19th, the Court announced that it was vacating the stay granted by Justice Douglas. Justice Douglas, Black and Frankfurter dissented.

The execution followed so rapidly that Justice Frankfurter did not have time to make his dissent public until after Ethel and Julius Rosenberg were dead.

The following Monday Justice Frankfurter wrote:

"To be writing an opinion in a case affecting two lives after the curtain has been rung down upon them has the appearance of pathetic futility. But history also has its claims."

THE MISSING DAY IN COURT

Those who say the Rosenbergs had their day in court are repeating a myth. But, one may ask, didn't the Supreme Court consider the case

so many times? The answer is, as Justice Frankfurter has stated, that refusal by the Supreme Court to review a case in no way implies approval of the decision by the lower courts. The Supreme Court never passed on the fairness of the trial or the justness of the sentence.

Even the majority opinion of the Supreme Court's rejection of the Rosenbergs' final plea, written by Mr. Justice Jackson and concurred in by Justices Vinson, Reed, Burton, Clark and Minton, said:

Justice Black wrote in his dissent:

"It is not amiss to point out that this Court has never reviewed this record and has never affirmed the fairness of the trial below. Without an affirmation of the fairness of the trial by the highest court in the land there may always be questions as to whether these executions were legally and rightfully carried out. I would still grant certiorari and let this Court approve or disapprove the fairness of the trials."

All three dissenting Justices criticized the irregular and injudicious haste of the executions.

To quote Justice Black:

"I do not believe that Government counsel or this Court has had time or an adequate opportunity to investigate and decide the very serious question raised in asking this Court to vacate the stay granted by Mr. Justice Douglas. . . . I add my regret that the rush of this case has deprived me of any opportunity to do more at this time than hastily sketch my view on the important questions raised. . . .

"Judicial haste is peculiarly out of place where the death penalty has been imposed for conduct part of which took place at a time when Congress appears to have barred the imposition of that death penalty by district judges acting without a jury's recommendation. And it seems to me that this court has not had time or opportunity for sufficient study to give the kind of informed decision on this important question it would if the case should take its regular course."

Justice Frankfurter wrote:

"Neither counsel nor the Court, in the time available, were able to go below the surface of the question raised by the application for a stay which Mr. Justice Douglas granted. More time was needed than was had for adequate consideration. . . .

"The crux of all I am suggesting is that none of the obvious considerations for bringing the all too leaden-footed proceedings in this case to an end should have barred the full employment of the deliberative process necessary for reaching a firm conclusion on the issue on which the Court has now spoken, however unfortunate it may be that the issue did not emerge earlier than it did."

THE DOUBTS MOUNT

The doubts in the Rosenberg case did not die in the electric chair. They are now intensified as a result of the dissenting opinions of Justices Black, Douglas and Frankfurter, who question the legality of the death sentence. Was the execution within the law?

Justice Black declared:

"It is my view, based on the limited arguments we have heard, that after passage of the Atomic Energy Act of 1946 it was unlawful for a judge to impose the death penalty for unlawful transmittal of atomic secrets unless such a penalty was recommended by the jury trying the case."

Justice Douglas said:

"The cold truth is that the death sentence may not be imposed for what the Rosenbergs did unless the jury so recommends. . . . I know deep in my heart that I am right on the law. Knowing that my duty is clear."

Justice Frankfurter wrote:

"It thus appears—although, of course, I would feel more secure in my conviction had I had the opportunity to make a thorough study of the lengthy record in this case—that the conspiracy with which the Rosenbergs were charged is one falling in part within the terms of the Atomic Energy Act, passed by Congress in 1946 and specifically dealing with classified information pertaining to the recent developments

What if the Rosenbergs had been tried under the Atomic Energy Act? So, with the Rosenbergs already executed, we have an admission that they would not have been convicted if tried under the law that three Supreme Court Justices believe applied to the case.

PEACE

Dear Vet:

Frankly and simply, we need your help - not your money.

The war in Korea has finally come to an uneasy halt and peoples of the world are breathing a deep sigh of relief.

The 25,000 American G.I.s who lost their lives in the senseless carnage of the "police action" in Korea cannot join us in our work for peace, but their buddies, the millions of Korean and World War II Vets can, and must.

We invite you to attend our membership meeting to be held on Monday, Sept. 21st at 8:30 P.M. - 77 Fifth Ave. (between 15th & 16th Streets).

Help us to plan the proper approach to Korean Vets so that they are not left to the "BRASS" of the Legion, VFW, TV, comic book and Hearst propaganda.

Vets need more housing, hospitals, a better G.I. Bill, particularly for Korean Vets, and a bonus to spark-plug a real peace-time economy.

We call upon you, our members, friends and supporters to partake in our discussions of this and other key topics, at this most important of meetings.

Remember the date -- Monday, Sept. 21st at 8:30 P.M. -- and the place -- 77 Fifth Avenue.

New Evidence In the Rosenberg Case

- Two sensational documents just revealed show that Ethel and Julius Rosenberg were sent to the Death House on the word of a liar.
- One document is written by David Greenglass, chief witness against the Rosenbergs. Greenglass, in handwriting verified as his own by one of the nation's leading experts, flatly contradicts his own testimony at the trial and admits he lied to the FBI. Here are examples:

In court Greenglass swore that confessed spy Harry Gold was sent to him by Julius Rosenberg. In the document Greenglass admits he doesn't know who sent Gold to him.

Greenglass told the FBI he gave Gold vital atomic secrets. But, in the document describing this statement made to the FBI, he confesses: "I can honestly say the information I gave Gold may be not at all what I said in the statement."

- A second document, a lawyer's memorandum based on an interview with Ruth Greenglass, the wife of David, reports her description of her husband as follows:

"As to her husband, she stated that he had a tendency to hysteria. At other times he would become delirious and once when he had the grippe he ran through the hallway, shrieking of 'Elephants,' 'Lead Pants'.

"She had known him since she was ten years old. She said that she would say things were so even if they were not. He talked of suicide as if he were a character in the movies but she didn't think he would do it."

- This is the man on whose word the Rosenbergs are to die! Don't let them die on the word of a hysterical liar.

PARENTS TO DIE ON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY ROSENBERG CHILDREN PLEAD WITH PRESIDENT

JOSEPH AND MICHAEL ROSENBERG

Dear President Eisenhower,
I am writing to you on Monday
Mr. Butler is in prison and because the President of the country
let things go all over the world and let the President over there and let the world know Mr. Butler should let him go. I think it is a good thing to let him go there because I think prison is a very bad place for anybody to be. My mother and father are in prison in New York. My brother is six years old and his name is Philip. He needs the very best and I want to write to you for Mr. Butler and please let my mother and father go and let my brother go. If they come home Philip will be very happy and I will be very happy too.
Very truly yours

ALL FAITHS ASK CLEMENCY FOR THE ROSENBERGS

L'OSSERVATORE ROMANO, OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE VATICAN

Now it is good to know that His Holiness, although without being able to enter into the merits of the case, cannot decline this interest when it is requested for saving human lives for the superior motive of charity proper to his Apostolic ministry, and as he has done out of pity in similar cases, so in this one he did not fail to intervene in so far as it was permitted to him by the lack of any official relation with the competent government authority.

2300 PROTESTANT CLERGYMEN OF 26 DENOMINATIONS

FOR SEENARD M. LOOMER, Dean of the University of Chicago Divinity School, spokesman, stated: "I urge you to reconsider your refusal to commute the death sentence of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg. Together with nearly 2300 other clergymen, I signed a letter asking for executive clemency. Our unaffiliated group represents an important segment of the Christian clergy of this country. All of us, as pastors, are in intimate touch with our people. It is fair to conclude that our opposition to the death sentence is shared by a much larger number of conservative and thoughtful citizens."

A CABLE FROM TWENTY ISRAELI RABBIS:

"Whatever the particulars, we appeal to you, Mr. President, in the name of God and the quality of mercy, to save the lives of the couple who are parents of two little children. Even if we assume that they had sinned against the laws of the United States, they shall no longer be able to do so if kept under surveillance, but some day they would be able to prove their innocence in such case your conscience and the conscience of the United States would be clean, no innocent life shall have been taken guiltlessly. We honestly believe that an act of clemency in this case is exceedingly vital."

THE NEW YORK TIMES, TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1953

EINSTEIN SUPPORTS ROSENBERG APPEAL

Prof. Albert Einstein, the venerable mathematician who lives in Princeton, N. J., announced that he had written the President Monday morning for mercy. His note said: "Dear Mr. President: My conscience compels me to urge you to commute the death sentences of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg. While appeal to you is prompted by the same reasons which were set forth so convincingly by my daughter at her college, Harold C. Urey, in his letter of Jan. 5, 1953, to THE NEW YORK TIMES. Respectfully Yours, ALBERT EINSTEIN."

Dr. Harold C. Urey, Nobel Prize Winner and renowned nuclear scientist

After reading the testimony of the Rosenberg case I find that I cannot resist my doubts about the verdict and wish to cite the following points:

(1) Max Elitcher's testimony is of doubtful value. He says that he and Julius talked about espionage but never transferred any information for some five years. This doesn't seem probable to me.

(2) No certain conspiracy between Sobell and Rosenberg is established.

(3) The connections to others than Ruth and David Greenglass have not been established. Miss Bentley was unable to identify the telephone voice that said, "This is Julius," with the voice of Julius Rosenberg. If Julius did not refer to him in this case, he probably did not when Harry Gold said he came from Julius when he said Greenglass in New Mexico. If from Gold's testimony it seems that the name of Julius of Rosenberg at all, it seems unbelievable to me that the name of Julius Rosenberg would be used in such identification phrases.

(4) No contact between the Rosenbergs and Anatoli A. Yakovlev is established.

(5) The Government's case rests on the testimony of Ruth and David Greenglass. He had pleaded guilty, but had not been sentenced and hoped for clemency. She has never been charged and tried. Obviously it seems as a reward for her testimony. A family feud between the Greenglasses and Rosenbergs existed because of a business alteration. The Rosenbergs' testimony flatly contradicted that of the Greenglasses.

(6) Testimony of Rosenbergs. I found the Rosenbergs' testimony more believable than that of the Greenglasses. Although I realize that I have not had the jurors' advantage of hearing and seeing the witnesses. It is customary for spies to be paid in watches and console tables. Greenglass and Fuchs were paid in cash. The Rosenbergs appear to have been poor as churchmice and the statement that Julius was spending $50 or $75 a night in night clubs seems to me to be a very doubtful one. Had he done this, he would have been obviously and unaccountably rich to all his associates.

However, even if the verdict is correct, I am amazed at the unequal punishment for the same crime. For the very same conspiracy Ruth Greenglass was never brought to trial, though she admitted her guilt on the witness stand. David Greenglass got fifteen years; Morton Sobell and Harry Gold got thirty years, and Ethel and Julius Rosenberg got death. Only the last two took the witness stand and maintained their innocence. If capital punishment is to be given in the future for espionage I should like to have it introduced in a case for which the evidence rests on the testimony of witnesses who did not stand to profit from their testimony. I do not regard self-confessed criminals as reliable witnesses.

We are engaged in a cold war with the tyrannical Government of the U.S.S.R. We wish to win the approval and loyalty of the good people of the world. Would it not be embarrassing after the execution of the Rosenbergs, it could be shown that the United States had executed two innocent people and let a guilty one go completely free? And remember, somewhere there is a representative of the U.S.S.R. who knows what the facts are.

I strongly urge a careful reconsideration of this sentence.

AN APPEAL FOR

Clemency

From the letter of
Dr. Bernard M. Loomer,
Dean of the School of Theology, University of Chicago, to President Eisenhower.

"Together with nearly 12300 other clergymen, I signed a letter asking for EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY. All of us, as pastors, are in intimate touch with our people; it is fair to conclude that our opposition to the death sentence is shared by a much larger number of conservative and thoughtful citizens."

From the Plea of
Rabbi Abraham Cronbach
Entitled:

"Mercy for the Rosenbergs"

Others convicted of the identical crime—Fuchs, Greenglass, Gold, So-bell, Slack, Simons, May, Brothman—have not been sentenced to death.
If the death penalty was, in those other cases, not requisite for our National Defense, why should it be so regarded in the case of the Rosenbergs?

From Vatican Statement

Pope Pius XII

Further, the case of the young couple sentenced to die together is so pitiful as to arouse sincere commiseration even in those not animated by any ignoble partisan interest in wanting to save their lives.
In particular, that a woman should wait in a death chamber for the moment of execution is in itself an event as tragic as it is rare and is such as to arouse instinctively a sense of horror. When, then, two children, Michael, 9 years old and Robert 5, are involved in this fearful fate, many hearts can be melted, before two little innocents on whose soul and destiny the death of their parents would forever leave sinister scars.

NEW EVIDENCE, POPE'S THIRD APPEAL, SUPREME COURT DELAY INCREASE CHANCE OF SAVING ROSENBERGS

Sensational new evidence that prosecution's key witness against the Rosenbergs lied; Pope's third clemency appeal; Supreme Court's delay in acting on Rosenberg case for many weeks have spurred campaign to save Julius and Ethel Rosenberg.

GREENGLASS LIED Evidence that witness David Greenglass lied in testimony against Rosenbergs revealed when conservative French newspapers, "Combat" and "Le Monde," published document in Greenglass handwriting. Greenglass says in document the manufactured stories of events that never took place. These stories were central in sending Rosenbergs to deathhouse. Other parts of Greenglass document contradict his courtroom testimony against Rosenbergs. Greenglass attorney SO. John Rogge indicated document's authenticity to New York Times. Handwriting expert Elizabeth McCarthy verified Greenglass handwriting in document. On basis for this expose, new clemency appeal went to Pres. Eisenhower from National Committee to Secure Justice in Rosenberg Case.

POPE'S NEW APPEAL Pope Pius XII's third clemency appeal covered in full page article April 16 issue official Vatican newspaper "L'Osservatore Romano." The case of the young couple sentenced to die together is so pitiful as to arouse in man's core compassion even in those not animated by any ignoble partisan interest in wanting to save their lives. Vatican paper said.

MORE TIME FROM Meanwhile, another Monday goes by with no Supreme Court action on Rosenberg case. Court had been expected to act nearly last month. Rosenbergs' supporters using time gained to step up activity.
